DV AND ROCK

By ZHU ZHU

This is a thunderstorm of vision and rock & roll.
This is an exhibition of such words: imagination, loss, space, search...

Thanks to Coca, who is inclined to wandering at night, for presenting the long cherished live show of rock & roll video, with the passionate withhold and the chilly but clear belief. The crashed and distended cutting changes the ever-painful voice into another impact of visual sight. The wild or smooth melody is turned into blinking wave, hitting the mind tucked with cotton. Sure, we have to show our gratitude to Sun Mengjin, who is always moved by rock & roll, tried his best to retrieve the real site of the rock & roll power.
